

You help learners succeed. Now let us help you.

Fort Lauderdale, Florida | Monday, September 24 to Wednesday, September 26

It's time to begin planning your trip to the Families Learning Conference 2018! Join us as we explore innovative strategies in family literacy and learning, tools for early childhood and adult educators, and best practices in parent and family engagement. At the General Sessions and the Banquet Celebration you will be inspired by keynote speakers Dr. Sharroky Hollie; Stanley Holder, Sr.; Brad Meltzer; and Tom Vander Ark. For details, or to register online visit <http://conference.familieslearning.org>.

Stanley Holder, Sr., to Keynote at Conference

On Tuesday, the 2018 Families Learning Conference will feature keynote speaker Stanley Holder, Sr., a member of the Wichita and Affiliated Tribes. He is a former Vice President of the tribe and has served in various capacities as an employee and member of tribal committees. He has an A.A. Degree in Psychology, a B.S. Degree in Psychology with a Minor in Criminal Justice (Cum Laude) and a M.A. Degree in Behavioral Science. He has over 30 years of experience in education, behavioral, mental health, and economic development programs and projects for federally recognized tribes and tribal community organizations. He has published articles on the Therapeutic Model development at BIE residential schools and designed and managed the organizational structure for the Therapeutic Model at Riverside Indian School.

Mr. Holder retired from the Bureau of Indian Education in 2013. His most recent position is as the Executive Director of the Acoma Tribal Department of Education. However, Mr. Holder's most important roles in life have been as a Sun Dancer, a Road Man in the Native American Church, and as a father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.
